GRAMMY Award winners sign and agree to the following terms as a condition precedent to receiving a GRAMMY Award Statuette:

Acknowledgment of Terms

The GRAMMY® Award is the most prestigious honor in the world of music and reflects the judgment of your peers that your creative contributions merit recognition of the highest order.

In order to protect and maintain the integrity and prestige of the GRAMMY® Awards and to ensure that the GRAMMY® statuette (“Statuette”) that you have been awarded is used solely for its intended purpose of honoring your creative contributions, the National Academy of Recording Arts & Sciences, Inc. (“Recording Academy”) requires that you acknowledge and agree to the terms set forth below as a condition precedent to granting you possession of the Statuette.

You acknowledge and agree that possession of the Statuette(s) — but not ownership (which is reserved to the Recording Academy) — is granted to you upon the express condition that you will not use the Statuette(s) other than for your own personal, non-commercial purposes. Without limiting the foregoing, any sale, auction, public exhibition, reproduction or other public or commercial exploitation of the Statuette by you or any third party, without the express prior written consent of the Recording Academy, is strictly prohibited. Any such actions will be null and void, will not serve to grant to any third party any right, title or interest in the Statuette, and will result in the immediate right of the Recording Academy to repossess the Statuette, which right the Recording Academy may exercise at any time in its sole discretion. In the event that the Statuette is transferred by you, including by operation of law, the transferee shall be subject to and bound by all of the terms set forth herein as if such transferee were the original recipient of the Statuette.
