

3 ways

MusiCares provides emergency support to the music community during and after natural disasters

Partner with local organizations on the ground to assess the needs of the affected community

Connect the music community to locally-available resources including information to access emergency shelter and essentials

Distribute emergency financial assistance for basic living expenses, shelter, equipment replacement or repair, medical care, mental health and addiction recovery services

Are you or someone you know in need of assistance?
Reach out to musicaresrelief@musicares.org or call us at 800-687-4277

Individuals with at least five years of experience in the industry
OR six released singles or music videos are eligible for assistance.